EARLY GRADUATES HONORED AT HOMECOMING

AND A GOOD TIME WAS HAD BY EVERYONE

Homecoming was a wonderful day for the hundreds of alumni returning to the campus for that occasion. The drawing room of Varnado Hall was a bee-hive of activity as young grads and earlier grads milled about exchanging greetings and meeting old classmates. A casual observer would have heard many repetitions of such expressions as "Hi, there", "Well, if it isn't . . .", "My Dear, where have you been . . .", "You old rascal", "Gosh, I'm glad to see you", "Do you remember when? . . .", etc., etc.

Everyone moved out to watch the parade get under way as it moved out the front entrance on Second Street. And a colorful, inspiring sight it was with the many ingenious ideas used in the construction of the floats, the hilarity and general good feeling of all the participants, and the general good fellowship that prevailed among the onlookers.

given special recognition, and classes by decades were recognized. Those traveling the greatest distance for homecoming were Hugh Carter, Fresno, California; Omer N. Minnich, Jr., Dayton, Ohio; and Emil Samec, St. Petersburg, Florida. A corsage was given to Miss Fannie Nelken, Class of 1896, the earliest graduate present. She is pictured on top of page 3 as Mrs. Thelma Zelenka Kyser is pinning the corsage on her.

Following a short talk by President John S. Kyser, former President A. A. Fredericks and Mr. W. J. (Bill) Dodd, State Auditor, were presented and made short talks.

Elected as officers of the Alumni Association for the ensuing year were A. G. (Ladd) Alexander, of Shreveport, as president; Erbon W. Wise, of Sulphur, as vice-president; Leroy S. Miller, of Natchitoches, executive secretary; C. M. McSwain, of Maplewood, and Richard Clanton, of Baton Rouge, as members of the Board of Directors for a term of four years each.

A thrilling game was witnessed between the Northeast Indians and the Demons, a nip-and-tuck affair, which resulted in a victory for the Demons by the score 26-20.

Following receptions by clubs, sororities, and fraternities, the homecoming ball extended until midnight, winding up a full and delightful day.

Credit for the success of homecoming goes to committee chairmen and their helpers, the student body, the faculty and administration, and all returning alumni.

Alumni Meetings Held

One hundred alumni attended the Calcasieu meeting at Sammy's Restaurant in Lake Charles on October 22. Millard Hudson, president of the local group, presided at the meeting, and John Rolan, principal of Eastwood Elementary School, was elected president for the next year.

Special guests for the meeting were Miss Catherine Winters, Mr. Alfred L. Ducournau, and Jack Clayton, Director of Athletics and head football coach at the College. Each of the special guests made short talks. They were introduced by Alumni Secretary, Leroy S. Miller.

The Baton Rouge area group met on October 24 at Mike and Tony's Restaurant with approximately 60 alumni in attendance. President Gaston England presided at the meeting. President John S. Kyser accompanied your Secretary to the meeting and addressed the group. Also featured on the program was Mr. Justine Wilson, who regaled the members present with his humorous "Cajun" stories and a talk on Safety.

Mrs. Marjorie Hagler Dial was elected president. The group accepted an invitation by Mr. Alton Rockhold and Mr. W. J. Dodd to hold their spring meeting at a camp near Clinton as the guests of Rockhold and Dodd.

The Shreveport group met October 29 at Bossier High School cafeteria with approximately fifty present. President Kyser and Coach Clayton addressed the group. All the football coaches and four players and Mr. S. W. Nelken were present from the College.

ALEXANDER AND WISE RE-ELECTED

TOLAR ROLLS FOR TOUCHDOWN AT HOMECOMING—THE QUEEN AND HER COURT

DEMONS IN TIE FOR GSC LEAD

With fullback Charles Tolar way out in front on yardage gained in the Gulf State Conference, followed by Charles Henningan in second place, paired off with Dale Hoffpauir, who leads the conference in passing, and Billy Booth, the GSC's top receiver, the Demons are tied for the conference lead with only one game to be played to complete the schedule.

Tolar, in seven games, has rolled up 694 yards on 85 rushing attempts to take the lead. His nearest competitor is team mate Charles Henningan with 409 yards in 100 tries. Hennigan is followed by Frank Bourgeois of S.L.C. with 407 yards on 70 tries, Roger Hampton of McNeese with 363 on 78, and Tommy Bell of S.L.C. with 342 on 71.

In the scoring column, Tolar leads the conference with 54 points. Paul Hynes of Louisiana Tech is second with 42 points and Hampton third with 39.

Quarterback Dale Hoffpauir has 35 completions in 55 tries for 540 yards, with a percentage of .636. James McCabe of Tech has completed 21 of 40 for 263 yards, and Billy Hawkins of Southeastern 20 of 46 for 216 yards.

Billy Booth of N.S.C. leads receivers with 12 catches for 318 yards, Henningan has 10 for 113, and Northeast's Reynolds and S.L.C.'s Bourgeois have seven for 71.

SOUTHEASTERN NEXT ON SCHEDULE

Having a season's record of six wins and two losses, the Demons will meet Southeastern on November 23 at Natchitoches for a game that will determine whether they will remain on top or become an also-ran. The Demons have an open date before the game with S.L.C.

Should McNeese State, Louisiana Tech, and Northwestern State win the remaining games on the schedule, the three will wind up the season in a tie for championship honors. Each has lost one conference game. McNeese defeated Tech, but lost to the Demons; and the Demons lost to Louisiana Tech (20-13).

Scores for the games played by the Demons this year are (Demon's score listed first) Stephen F. Austin, 20-7; Lamar Tech, 10-20; McNeese State, 23-20; Louisiana College, 25-7; Louisiana Tech, 13-20; Delta State, 26-0; Northeast State, 26-20; and Southwestern, 19-0.

The Demons have scored 162 points to the opponents 94 and gained a total of 2271 yards to 1899 for their opponents. Points scored by the Demons have been distributed as follows: Tolar 54, Hennigan 36, Brunning 16, Booth 12, Hale 12, Deen 12, Pernici 6, Gordon 6, Haffpauir 6, and Johnson 2.

CRANFORD TO GUIDE DEMON CAGERS

The Demon basketball season will open on December 2. In the absence of Charles (Red) Thomas, head basketball coach, who is away on leave working on his doctorate at Peabody College, the team will be handled by assistant coach Huey Cranford.

Cranford has been working with Coach Thomas for the past two years. During that time he has coached the freshmen and acted as scout for head coach Thomas. "He will be in complete charge of the team as far as I am concerned," Thomas stated before leaving for study. "We have worked together for two years and, except for some changes we worked out at the end of last season, there probably won't be much change in style of play," remarked Thomas.

Cranford is a graduate of Louisiana Tech and has had experience as coach at Florien and Oak Grove (Sabine Parish), where he tutored such standouts as all-time Gulf States Conference scoring king, Dick Brown, and Jimmy Leach. He produced one state championship team at Florien in 1954, and two runner-ups at Oak Grove (1952) and Florien (1956).

The Demon basketball team will be built around seven returning lettermen, one squadman, and six freshmen prospects. They will try to better last season's record of 14 wins against 13 losses.

Lettermen returning are Mickey Crnkovic, team captain, of Zwolle, the only senior on the squad; Elvin McCann, Cheneyville; Jimmy Leach, Florien; Pete Walpole, Bossier City; Jimmy Adkins, Gibsland; Bobby Wickler, Baton Rouge; and Larry Fontenot, DeQuincy. Bill Stewart of Doyline is the only squadman returning from last season.

Among the freshmen on the squad are Philip Haley and Larry Skinner of Belmont, Paul Flinn and Larry Williams of New York City, Richard Pullig of Gibsland, and Lovick Johnson of Natchitoches. Haley and Skinner are from Belmont's state championship (Class C) team which won 40 consecutive games before losing, and Johnson was high-point man for Natchitoches High School.
